- This book guides young readers on a quest for fascinating and unforgettable fantasy creatures through the diary of a young apprentice who studies information, legends and details
- Suitable for ages 7 years and up

This book guides young readers on a quest for fascinating and unforgettable fantasy creatures through the diary of a young apprentice who studies information, legends and details. Two sections dedicated to the Creatures for Beginner Keepers (the most docile and sweet) and the Creatures for Expert Keepers (the most dangerous). Short, fun, approachable stories that describe each creature and explain how to catch sight of it, how to tame it and what makes it angry at the end of the story, the readers will find a short test, similar to the one the book's narrator must take, so that they'll get their Certificate of Fantastic Creatures Keeper, that children can detach from the book and fill. Ages: 7 plus

Federica Magrin born in Varese in 1978, has worked in publishing for more than ten years, first as an editor at Edizioni De Agostini and currently as freelancer. She focuses on children's books. Over the years, she has done several books for White Star Kids.Anna Lang is a Hungarian graphic designer and illustrator who is currently living and working in Sardinia.
