- Exploring the work of Zurich architects Gundula Zach and Michel Zünd
- They won a competition for designing the Sechseleutenplatz - largest town square situated in Zürich

Gundula Zach and Michel Zünd attracted initial attention in 2001 with their winning competition design for the prominent Sechseleutenplatz. Since 2000, the Zurich architects have won around 20 competitions, out of which they have developed housing and renovated school facilities with intelligence and an exceptional sense of architectural qualities.

Text in English and German.
