"This book is like a private exhibition." Belgian Newspaper De Volkskrant on Masterpiece
2019, 450 years after the Old Master's death, will be celebrated as the Year of Bruegel, culminating in the exhibition 'The Age of Bruegel' at The Royal Museum of Fine Arts (KMSKA), Antwerp. In the run up to the numerous exhibitions and festivities that are planned for next year, Lannoo Publishers releases this glossy guidebook. It contains images of the Old Master's paintings showing astonishing detail. It contains expert commentary by Till-Holger Borchert, director of all Bruges-based museums. Text in English and Dutch. Also available in the series: Masterpiece: Peter Paul Rubens ISBN: 9789401441612 Masterpiece: Jan Van Eyck ISBN: 9789401441629

Till-Holger Borchert is an expert on the art history of the Low Countries. He was the chief curator of the Groeningemuseum in Bruges for years, and has now assumed the position of director of all Bruges-based museums.
