- Fifteen personalities. Fifteen regions. Fifteen wine styles. All sharing the same passion, drive and concern for quality
- A luxurious book with top photography
- The perfect gift for those passionate about wine, and passionate of life

Vineyard tells the story of 15 Belgian winemakers who operate in 15 different European countries. Their journeys lead the reader to the most diverse wine domains: from the flanks of the Etna in Sicily to the Douro riversides in Portugal, and the fascinating landscape of the Priorat in Spain. This book details the wine-making process, while giving the reader an intimate feel for the localities where these wines are produced.

Dirk De Mesmaker is a journalist, and has written many books on viniculture. Andrew Verschetse studied art and photography at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in Ghent, going on to specialise in food and beverages photography.
