TITLE INFORMATION
Tel: +44 (0) 1394 389950
Email: uksales@accartbooks.com
Web: https://www.accartbooks.com/uk

Munich

City of the Arts

Hans F. Nohbauer

Achim Bunz

| | |
|---|---|
| ISBN | 9781558598652 |
| Publisher | Abbeville Press |
| Binding | Hardback |
| Territory | World excluding USA, Canada, Puerto Rico, and Australia |
| Size | 324 mm x 267 mm |
| Pages | 348 Pages |
| Price | £106.99 |

- Breath-taking photographs and details provide a tour through the rich sites of this legendary city
- Tracing Munich's history from the 12th century through the present, this sumptuous book illustrates the city's treasures, from the collections of antiquities in the Alte Pinakothek, to incomparable baroque and rococo buildings, to the neon-lit festivities of the modern-day Oktoberfest

Breathtaking photographs and details provide a tour through the rich sites of this legendary city. Tracing Munich’s history from the 12th century through the present, this sumptuous book illustrates the city’s treasures, from the collections of antiquities in the Alte Pinakothek, to incomparable baroque and rococo buildings, to the neon-lit festivities of the modern-day Oktoberfest.

Hans F. Nohbauer is the author of various books on the history and culture of Bavaria, including the The Chronicle of Bavaria. Dr. Nohbauer is the arts editor of Abendzeitung, the prominent Munich daily. Achim Bunz was educated at the Academy for Photodesign in Munich. His photographs have been frequently published in leading European newspaper and magazines.

Published 1st Dec 1994