

101 Design Classics

Why some ideas become true design icons and others don't, 1920 until Today
Silke Pfersdorf

ISBN	9783961714179
Publisher	teNeues Books
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World excluding Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Belgium, Netherlands
Size	300 mm x 235 mm
Pages	272 Pages
Illustrations	200 color
Price	£39.95

- A beautifully curated and photographed selection of objects that represent the best and most interesting ideas in modern design
- Insider knowledge for design lovers and interior design fans, addressing the question of why some designs become true classics and why others do not make it
- The perfect gift for everyone who loves beautiful things and wants to know more about them

"A great gift for design aficionados and interiors addicts." — Irish Examiner

With expert analysis, great photography, and a huge selection of familiar and unusual objects, this book explains what truly makes a design great and reveals the hidden stories behind the everyday things that surround us. The author, a writer and journalist specialising in design, has chosen 101 objects that have had a major influence on the world of design history, delving into the makers, the designers, and developments in production and style that made these pieces into design classics. The text incorporates design sketches, portraits of many well-known and some unknown designers, as well as numerous exciting anecdotes from the sewing box of design history. The selection of designers includes, but is not limited to, legends such as Charles & Ray Eames, Verner Panton, Alexander Girard and other protagonists of classical modernism. Also here are post-war designers such as Finn Juhl, Gilbert Rohde, Pierre Paulin, and Gae Aulenti, and postmodern and contemporary designers such as Philippe Starck, Marcel Wanders, and Konstantin Grcic. This book provides an in-depth and informative overview of 20th-century design – and a glimpse of the first true classic objects of the 21st century.

Silke Pfersdorf (b.1963, Hanover), is a long-time journalist, columnist, and author, and publishes regularly in numerous popular magazines. She is known, among other things, for her column Schätzchen, wo kommst du denn her? in Living at Home, in which she highlights a design classic every month.