- Twenty art and design collectors welcome you to their homes
- An inexhaustible source of inspiration for all those who love art and design
- Stunning collections, with beautiful furniture and art
- The second book in the Homes for… series

Collectors design their homes with their prized objects in mind. In this book 20 art and design collectors open the doors to their homes, many for the first time. You will be amazed at what you'll see: from a Giacometti sculpture to a garbage bag by Gustav Metzger, from an iconic Eames lounge chair to the Living Tower by Verner Panton. This successor to the successful book*Homes for Nomads (* 9789401477437) offers pages and pages of inspiration for all those who love beautiful and real-life interiors, and who perhaps live with, and love, their own collections.

Professional photographer Jan Verlinde specializes in architecture and decoration and publishes in several prominent Belgian magazines. Thijs Demeulemeester is a lifestyle journalist who specializes in interior, contemporary art and architecture. He writes for several notable Belgian magazines and newspapers.
