- Photographer Jan Verlinde and writer Thijs Demeulemeester invite you to discover 20 inspiring homes filled with interesting and unique objects collected by passionate travelers

"If you didn't manage to travel abroad this year, Homes for Nomads: Interiors of the Well-Travelled is just the ticket."—Harrods Magazine

For the passionate traveler, a design book that features 20 gorgeous interiors that incorporate objects collected from around the world, bringing a touch of exotic and far away places into the home. The authors showcase unique objects – a Vespa, a tiki bar, a surf board, an African mask – that embody memorable and meaningful travels, and represent the nomadic spirit of the traveler in daily life. They reveal how these elements can be creatively and beautifully displayed, giving the sense of traveling at home without leaving home.

Text in English, French and Dutch.
