- Part of the international 111 Places/Shops series with over 650 titles and 3.8 million copies in print worldwide
- Appeals to both the local market and the tourist market

Why are half of the bars in Barcelona called "Frankfurt", why is chocolate booming here, and why do the people of Barcelona never write their names on their doorbells? Why are brothels/transient hotels booming in Barcelona? Where can you find the most unusual souvenirs? What happens at night in the Egyptian Museum? This book will lead you to places in the Catalan capital for which you will look in vain in conventional travel guides, far from Gaudí, Rambla, and Paella. Even the Catalonians surprise themselves in this book...
