TITLE INFORMATION
Tel: +44 (0) 1394 389950
Email: uksales@accartbooks.com
Web: https://www.accartbooks.com/uk

111 Places in the Cotswolds That You Shouldn't Miss

Ulrike Lemmin-Woolfrey

Photographs by Alison Walker

ISBN	9783740828219
Publisher	Emons Verlag
Binding	Paperback / softback
Territory	World excluding Germany and Austria
Size	205 mm x 135 mm
Pages	240 Pages
Illustrations	111 color
Name of series	111 Places
Price	£13.99

- The ultimate insider's guide to the Cotswolds for locals and experienced travellers
- Features interesting and unusual places not found in traditional travel guides
- Part of the international 111 Places series with over 650 titles and 3.8 million copies in print worldwide
- Appeals to both the local market (around 500,000 people call the Cotswolds home) and the tourist market (around 20 million people visit the Cotswolds every year!)
- Fully illustrated with 111 full-page colour photographs

111 Places in the Cotswolds reveals an England of rolling hills, gurgling streams, timeless villages and unexpected stories. Which place did William Morris call "Heaven on Earth"? Where can you channel Provence in summer? Where are stones said to be petrified geese, and which hill is home to 18 species of rare orchid? Awarded Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty status, the Cotswolds are celebrated for their landscapes — but their true charm lies in the human history scattered across them. From Neolithic standing stones and Roman mosaics to farms harvesting nature's best produce and villages that have barely changed in centuries, this guide uncovers the places and people that have added to the region's allure. With 111 surprises, legends and historic discoveries at every turn, no day exploring the Cotswolds is ever without something amazing — or, at the very least, a very decent pub lunch.

Ulrike Lemmin-Woolfrey is a freelance travel writer and guidebook author of three books about Australia. Her bylines have appeared in international publications such as National Geographic, BBC, CNN, Wanderlust, Lonely Planet, The Independent, The Telegraph and many more. Originally from Hamburg, Germany, she has lived in Paris, France; Melbourne, Australia; Dubai, UAE; Muscat, Oman; and Doha, Qatar, with her husband and daughter. She has now semi-settled in Bristol, UK, but is forever packing and unpacking suitcases, having travelled to more than 110 countries and counting.

Publish date 8th Feb 2027