TITLE INFORMATION
Tel: +44 (0) 1394 389950
Email: uksales@accartbooks.com
Web: https://www.accartbooks.com/uk

111 Places in the Yorkshire Dales That You Shouldn't Miss

David Taylor

ISBN	9783740827922
Publisher	Emons Verlag
Binding	Paperback / softback
Territory	World excluding Germany and Austria
Size	205 mm x 135 mm
Pages	240 Pages
Illustrations	111 colour
Name of series	111 Places
Price	£13.99

- The ultimate insider's guide to the Yorkshire Dales for locals and experienced travellers
- Features interesting and unusual places not found in traditional travel guides
- Part of the international 111 Places series with over 650 titles and 3.8 million copies in print worldwide
- Appeals to both the local market (around 23,000 people call the Yorkshire Dales home) and the tourist market (more than 6.6 million people visit the Yorkshire Dales every year!
- Fully illustrated with 111 full-page colour photographs
- Includes 11 carefully chosen walks to help you discover the Yorkshire Dales on foot

The Yorkshire Dales is a truly special corner of Britain, offering a glorious mix of beautiful countryside, charming villages and prosperous market towns. It's a place to climb high peaks or venture deep underground, and to enjoy local arts and crafts, good food and locally made drinks. This book explores a quirkier side of the Dales and includes 11 carefully chosen walks to help you discover it on foot. Find out where a queen lost a valuable item of clothing, visit the world's smallest art gallery, take on the Three Peaks Challenge, meet a jolly gang of scarecrows and learn how to forecast the weather the Yorkshire way. Along the way you can explore fictional villages and their real-life inspirations, meet a god trapped forever in stone, follow in Robin Hood's footsteps (and perhaps glimpse his bare bottom), party like it's 1959 in an authentic American diner and search for Yorkshire's own Atlantis beneath a lake. Written by an author with deep local knowledge, this guide reveals the many hidden splendours of the Yorkshire Dales.

Newcastle-born David Taylor is a professional freelance landscape photographer and writer who now lives in Northumberland. His first camera was a Kodak Instamatic. Since then he's used every type of camera imaginable: from bulky 4x5 film cameras to pocket-sized digital compacts. David has written nearly 40 books about photography, as well as supplying images and articles to both regional and national magazines. When David is not outdoors he can be found at home with his wife and a worryingly large number of tripods.

Published 28th Aug 2026