- The ideal combination of travel guide and cookbook – perfect for curious minds and lovers of good food
- Authentic recommendations far from the tourist crowds
- Exciting, easy-to-follow recipes that bring a taste of vacation to your table – even if you've never been to Ibiza

When thinking of Ibiza, two things usually come to mind: its sparkling nightlife and breathtaking beaches. But this Balearic island offers so much more than long nights and sun-soaked days. A Taste of Ibiza invites readers to discover a completely different side of the island. Locals open the doors to a cultural and culinary journey, sharing their favourite hidden gems far from the tourist crowds. With personal recommendations on nature, culture, cuisine, and nightlife – and a treasure trove of authentic recipes to recreate at home – this book brings that holiday feeling right into your kitchen. We're going to Ibiza!

Sherin Kneifl has a keen eye for bringing compelling stories into the spotlight. As a journalist, she has written for renowned publications such as BUNTE, ELLE, InStyle, and Süddeutsche Zeitung. In her role as editor-in-chief of the Swiss lifestyle and fashion magazines Style and Bolero, she always struck the right tone – a talent she brings once again to A Taste of Ibiza.
