

A Taste of Mallorca

Places of longing, original recipes and insider tips

Thomas Niederste-Werbeck

ISBN	9783766728708
Publisher	Callwey
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World excluding Germany, Austria, Switzerland, USA & Canada
Size	280 mm x 250 mm
Pages	240 Pages
Illustrations	350 color
Name of series	A Taste Of
Price	£40.00

- The best restaurants & cafés on one of the world's most popular islands
- Includes 70 authentic recipes straight from Mallorca's finest kitchens
- Hidden gems, insider knowledge, and where to shop

Mallorca enchants. With its dreamy beaches, turquoise coves, elegant fincas, and that unmistakable Mediterranean ease, the island never fails to captivate. This book invites readers on a culinary journey to Mallorca's finest restaurants and cafés. Chefs share their favourite recipes, offer a glimpse behind the scenes, and speak about their very own Mallorca.

Beyond the cuisine, this travel companion reveals the island's most special places – far from the well-trodden tourist paths. Each region has its own unique charm, impressing with dramatic landscapes, picturesque villages, and an honest, heartfelt cuisine.

Thomas Niederste-Werbeck is a recognised expert in design and fine dining. As a creative director and editor-in-chief, he developed and successfully led renowned magazines such as Architektur & Wohnen, Salon, Häuser, and Dogs. He has known and loved Mallorca since his youth. In 2016, he relocated part of his life to the island and founded his new design studio in Artà.