TITLE INFORMATION
Tel: +44 (0) 1394 389950
Email: uksales@accartbooks.com
Web: https://www.accartbooks.com/uk

All You Need is Colour

At Home

Kurt Godfrey Stapelfeldt

Helenio Barbetta

ISBN	9789020930986
Publisher	Lannoo Publishers
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World excluding Benelux France, Switzerland & Scandinavia
Size	280 mm x 220 mm
Pages	256 Pages
Illustrations	220 color
Price	£50.00

- Wander through interiors that pop with colour
- Shows the effect of playing with colour in 20 interiors
- With outstanding photographs by renowned interior photographer Helenio Barbetta
- From bright and fierce to pastel and subdued, the book offers something for everyone

In interior design, colour is one of the most potent instruments to create mood and personality. Whether the palette aims at quiet harmony or full-blown colour contrast, a colourful home is always fun, uplifting and welcoming. Interior photographer Helenio Barbetta shows us the way, with 20 homes that stand out thanks to their purposeful use of colour. Author Kurt G. Stapelfeldt investigates how these interiors are shaped by their hues, and how colour choices reflect the personality of the inhabitants. When used thoughtfully, colour transforms any space into a personal sanctum. From floor-to-ceiling colour to small bursts of colour, from dark classic blue to bright citrus yellow: All You Need is Colour shows the many ways in which we can use colour to liven up our living quarters.

Kurt G. Stapelfeldt is a freelance design professional and a journalist for Vogue Australia, Elle Decoration, IDEAT and Interior Design Magazine. Helenio Barbetta is an Italian interior photographer. His work is published worldwide, in e.g. the international editions of Vogue, Elle Decoration, The Telegraph, Architectural Digest and IDEAT.

Published 2nd Mar 2026