

Alvisi Kirimoto

Architecture 2012-2025

Maurizio Carones

Valerio Paolo Mosco

ISBN	9788855211932
Publisher	Forma Edizioni
Binding	Paperback / softback
Territory	World
Size	155 mm x 225 mm
Pages	168 Pages
Illustrations	31 color
Name of series	Progressive. Sections of Italian Architecture
Price	£20.00

- An architecture series that aims to dedicate small monographs to the most interesting Italian practitioners, with a series of agile bilingual books mapping the best of contemporary architecture
- Each volume will contain essays, project files and apparatuses

Alvisi Kirimoto is an international architecture, urban planning and design studio. Founded by Massimo Alvisi and Junko Kirimoto in 2002, it is distinguished by its sartorial approach to design, its "sensitive" use of technology and its control of space through the manipulation of paper. Their dialogue with nature, urban regeneration and focus on social issues make their projects unique in the international architecture scene.

Text in English and Italian

Valerio Paolo Mosco is associate professor of Architectural Design and Architectural Theory at the IUAV University of Venice. He currently teaches at Cornell University in Rome. He is the author of the following monographs: Frugalità (Lettera 22 Edizioni, 2022); Viaggio in Italia (Maggioli Edizioni, 2021); Giuseppe Terragni: the war, the end (Forma Edizioni, 2020); Architettura italiana. Dal postmoderno ad oggi (Skira, 2017); Architettura a volume zero (with Aldo Aymonino, Skira, 2006). He is editor of the online magazine "Viceversa Magazine" and editor of the column "Viaggio in Italia" for the magazine The Plan.

