- One of today's most distinctive and influential contemporary painters
- Presents 139 never-before-shown works on paper
- Including distinguished new scholarship

André Butzer is one of today's most distinctive and influential painters. For the first time, this volume reveals a little-known side of his oeuvre: 139 never-seen-before works on paper executed between 2001 and 2019. New and exciting scholarship sheds light upon his predominant themes and motives. Following his breakthrough works in the early 2000s, throughout the years, one is able to witness the artistic verve and intimacy, which bring forth his uncompromising mature style.

André Butzer was born in Stuttgart, Germany in 1973, and now lives in Altadena, CA. Institutional exhibitions: Hall Art Foundation Reading/VT, IKOB Museum of Contemporary Art Eupen, Kestnergesellschaft Hannover, Kunsthalle Hamburg, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, MUMOK Vienna, Musée d'Art Contemporain Nîmes, Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofía, Madrid, Museo Nacional de Arte, Mexico City, Museu de Arte de São Paulo, Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles, Rubell Family Collection, Miami.
