- Inspire children’s imagination through true stories about animals
- Join these fuzzy characters on captivating and courageous adventures of friendship

Fourteen tender and engaging stories about animals: unexpected examples of friendship between animals or of love and loyalty towards humans, of courage or of intelligence and courageous ability. What’s more, this collection focuses on real stories that growing children can use to create their concept of the world that surrounds them and how kind, loving, and brave their fellow animals can be.

Ages 6 plus.

Bianca Austria produces playful and whimsical art around themes like wildlife, exploration, and travel. She takes pride in using art to empower her Filipino culture as well as other underrepresented communities. Her work has been featured by Disney and The New Yorker. She has also received awards from the Society of Illustrators New York and The One Club for Creativity. Leonardo Mazzeo began his career in the world of communication by collaborating with various online publications on short stories and novels. Always passionate about nature, he is the creator and editor of the “Bestiale” newsletter, which collects curiosities and incredible stories from the animal world.
