The apartment is the defining home of the modern city. Whether overlooking Parisian boulevards, occupying a historic Milanese palazzo or soaring above the skyline of New York, today's finest apartments combine exceptional interior design and architectural character. They are places where city life finds its most vital and refined expression.

Apartment takes readers inside the world's most beautiful and stylish apartments, told through interviews with the leading interior designers and architects who created them. Discover richly layered Madrid residences, cinematic New York penthouses and landmark apartments in London, and step inside the personal homes of iconic designers such as Willy Rizzo and Dimorestudio's Emiliano Salci. From bijou Parisian residences to cavernous Manhattan lofts, each project reveals a singular vision of urban living.

With over 250 beautiful colour images in a large-format cloth-bound edition, Apartment is the essential global survey of the world's most beautiful and stylish apartments.
