- A book to get the kids excited about your family vacation!
- Includes trivia, myths, and entertainment for travel time!
- Routes and attractions that you can mix and match with your “grown-up” plans for the perfect itinerary

The latest addition to the successful travel guide series focused on presenting options that engage young explorers, and their families too!

Discover Barcelona through 4 itineraries that investigate the Spanish cities best-known and most-hidden attractions. The itineraries are accompanied by maps, trivia, myths, and exciting points of interest. Highlights include the Sagrada Familia, Parc Guell, cable cars, and Tibidabo amusement park! Parents can add stops along the routes for a trip that makes everyone happy!

Age 6+

Daniela Celli, after living in New York for many years, started in 2008 a blog about her family’s adventures around the world. She is a criminology graduate, but writing is her main passion! Laura Re was born in Rome and attended the Rome School of Comics. After the Mimaster in Illustration, she started working as a freelance graphic designer and has worked on many published titles for children.
