

ars viva 2022

Tamina Amadyar, Lewis Hammond, Mooni Perry

Edited by Min-young Jeon

Edited by Mathilda Legemah

Text by Osei Bonsu

Text by Karin Laanso

Text by Quinn Latimer

Text by Lisa Marei Schmidt

Text by Mira Shah

ISBN 9783735608178

Publisher Kerber

Binding Paperback / softback

Territory World excluding Germany, Austria, Switzerland, the US & Canada

Size 280 mm x 210 mm

Pages 144 Pages

Illustrations 85 color

Name of series ars viva

Price £40.00

- Introducing young, contemporary artists based in Germany

Since 1953, the Kulturkreis der deutschen Wirtschaft has awarded the ars viva prize to outstanding young artists based in Germany. The award honours work that demonstrates a distinct language of form and an awareness of contemporary issues. This year's award includes exhibitions at Brücke-Museum, Berlin and the Kai Art Center, Tallinn, Estonia. The ars viva prize 2022 will be awarded to Tamina Amadyar (*1989), Lewis Hammond (*1987) and Mooni Perry (*1990).

Text in English and German.

