

Art of the Street: London

Andy Cantillon

ISBN	9780993240706
Publisher	Art of Publishing Limited
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World
Size	178 mm x 127 mm
Pages	160 Pages
Illustrations	160 color, b&w
Price	£9.95

- Street art is an ever-evolving scene with a passionate, inquisitive and loyal following
- The book is multi artist and appeals to a broad range of enthusiasts
- Ideal for the gift market due to its price point, content and size
- Long term appeal due to the transient nature of the works
- A series that will include books on Bogota, Berlin, Rio de Janeiro, Buenos Aires, Los Angeles and other cities across the world

Art of the Street – London is the first in a series celebrating the phenomenon of street art in the world's greatest cities. A photographer's view of London's transient street art scene shot over a two year period from 2013. Celebrating the vibrancy, creativity and colour of the movement and documenting a time and place in its history. Artist's work include Stik, Thierry Noir, Jimmy C, Alice, Otto Schade and Nunca with many more both celebrated and unknown. These books show the colour, detail and skill in these works, showcasing the talents of these contemporary artists.

Andy Cantillon is a professional photographer and picture editor. He is also co-founder of Art Of Publishing Limited and has published books for Boy George and John Lydon. Mr Rotten's Scrapbook won the NME award for best book in 2011.