

Art of the Street: Rio de Janeiro

Andy Cantillon

ISBN	9780993240744
Publisher	Art of Publishing Limited
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World
Size	127 mm x 178 mm
Pages	160 Pages
Illustrations	160 color, b&w
Price	£9.95

- Street art is an ever evolving scene with a passionate, inquisitive and loyal following
- The book is multi artist and appeals to a broad range of enthusiasts, with a long-term appeal due to the transient nature of the works
- A series that will include books on Bogota, Havana, Paris, and New York among many other cities across the world

Art of the Street, Rio de Janeiro is book three in a mission to capture the best of street art across the world's greatest cities. From tackling 'local' strength Caipirinhas, to being chased out of 'no-go' favelas, photographer Andy Cantillon has gone the extra mile to document and preserve these works in an ever transient and evolving scene. Featured artists include Santa Crew, Kovok Crew, Toz, Wark Rocinha, Vhils, Nata Familia and Smael with many more both celebrated and as yet unknown. The books in this series show the colour, detail and skill in these works, showcasing the talent of these contemporary artists. Also available: Art of the Street: London ISBN 9780993240706 Art of the Street: Berlin ISBN 9780993240720

Andy Cantillon is a professional photographer and picture editor. He is also co-founder of Art Of Publishing Limited and has published books for Boy George and John Lydon. Mr Rotten's Scrapbook won the NME award for best book in 2011.