Taivo Piller, who was Estonian champion several times, is one of those young, trend-setting florists who is constantly travelling all over the world and who is 'spotted' by numerous colleagues. His arrangements are very contemporary, as he considers floral art of the twenty-first century as being a part of fashion, interior design and architecture. Stichting Kunstboek Publishers have invited Taivo Piller to make a highly innovative book on the 'wedding'-theme, one of his favourites. It took the author more than fourteen months to complete the job, because he wanted to show both brides and bridal bouquets in the four seasons. More than twenty-five professional models are involved in the making of this exceptional title. Every arrangement is a unique piece of art that finds its completion in the professional expression and the charisma of the model.
