

Die Logik des Bauwerks ist eine mathematische wie eine ästhetische. In der Rekombination bildet sich die Landschafts-architektur der nachdenklichen Aufgaben gerecht. Architektur, Städtebau und Regionalentwicklung begreifen sich an der Idee der Landschaft zu orientieren.
Ausgehend von diesen Voraussetzungen wie an die kulturelle Tradition der Gartenszene schließt das Büro Kiefer neue Hybride aus Stadt und Landschaft. Ausgangspunkt ist ein modernes Verständnis von Raum, Plätzen, der Anlage der Räume, der Sensibilität der Gefühle und Ideen und der Rekombination gelangt die Landschaftsarchitektur des Büro Kiefer zu zukunftsweisenden Bauentwürfen.

Design logic is both mathematical and aesthetic. Landscape architecture recombines the two in order to master the growing number of tasks it has to perform: architecture, urban and regional development, are finding the idea of landscape increasingly relevant.
Büro Kiefer creates new urban and landscape hybrids by addressing these challenges and the cultural tradition of garden art. The starting point is a modern perception of space.
Büro Kiefer creates re-orienting spatial images by analysing space, exploring influences and ideas and then recombining them.

Büro Kiefer, founded in Berlin in 1989, can be counted amongst the most important international landscape design bureaus. A mathematical and aesthetic logic lies at the basis of every design. In recombining both, landscape design answers to the ever growing job responsibilities: architecture, urban development and region development orientate the landscape. Linked up with this challenge, but also with the cultural tradition of garden art, Büro Kiefer creates new hybrids from town and landscape. Their starting point is a contemporary understanding of space. On the basis of an analysis of the space, the division of influences and ideas and recombining them, Büro Kiefer creates images referring to the future. In this book a number of important projects are presented as a whole for the first time. Büro Kiefer, Landscape Design is a publication in a series about leading architects and landscape designers in the Europe of today. Text in English and German. Also available: Jo Crepain ISBN 9789058561145
