- Deep-dive boxes with fascinating facts to complement an already rich historical account
- Visually stunning
- From Germany and Ireland to Asia and India, this book is an example of the rich cultural differences that make the world so fantastic – showcasing the best in architecture, art, and design

A volume dedicated to the most beautiful castles and royal residences in the world. Dive into the historical period in which each palace was built – brought further to life by biographies of the queens and kings, as well as the nobles and ladies who lived there.

All further illuminated by the rich frescoes and paintings commissioned by royals and created by some of the world's best talents. Not to miss is also the unique decorations, furnishings and style in each. Step outside to be filled with awe by the gardens and floral arrangements, truly diverse in each culture.

Paola Hazon coordinates and directs a publishing studio that creates series and monographs for prestigious publishing houses, particularly in the areas of travel and culture. She has been editor-in-chief of three historical information magazines.
