Paris-based firm ChartierDalix, founded in 2008 by Frédéric Chartier and Pascale Dalix, can look back on a successful first 12 years of design practice. They have garnered attention at various international competitions and were awarded several prizes, such as the Europe 40 under 40 Award. In 2019, their first book ChartierDalix. Hosting Life explored their unique approach to link ecosystem and architecture and their research and practical implementation of this connection.

In this new series of books, ChartierDalix present their entire body of work, beginning with two volumes covering the years 2008 to 2022. It showcases 28 designs the firm has realized in Paris and the surrounding area, all described in detail with texts, photographs and plans. This is supplemented by a complete illustrated catalogue of ChartierDalix's projects since 2008.

Frédéric Chartier and Pascale Dalix are the founding partners of Paris-based architecture firm ChartierDalix, where Sophie Deramond is working as office director and Aleja Castellanos is in charge of research and development as well as of editorial projects and publicty. Benoît Santiard and Guillaume Grall are founders of the graphic design agency Building Paris, Cécile Legnaghi and Loïc Altaber are independent Paris-based graphic designers.
