- A reissue of ISBN 9789401443876 in a hardback format, this book showcases the 'grand tour' of Magnum Photographer Carl De Keyzer through North Korea
- After his 2016 book, Cuba: La Lucha, comes another unique book about a unique country

“Timing is of the essence but a serious amount of good luck and a decent quality crystal ball are necessary.” – Carl De Keyzer in The Guardian.

When it comes to foreign visitors or artists, North Korea must be one of the most restrictive countries in the world. Nevertheless, Belgian-born Magnum photographer Carl De Keyzer managed to cross the entire country in 42 days, divided into 3 separate journeys. In his latest book, De Keyzer goes deep into North Korea, officially the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, the last communist state in the world from an ideological, political and cultural perspective. De Keyzer is one of very few photographers to have almost unlimited access to the country. He photographed more than 200 different locations, many of which had never been captured on camera before. The 250 photos that form his 'Grand Tour' – taken on marches, at the shooting range, in the subway and in family homes – are a testament to this unique and unfamiliar country.

Carl De Keyzer has been a member of the renowned photo agency Magnum since 1994. His pictures have been published and exhibited all over the world. Regular themes in his work are the permanent threat of decline in a modern civilisation and the impact of power on daily life.
