- A novel and cookbook in one: the complete, unabridged novel paired with 30 specially developed and beautifully photographed recipes
- A premium collector's edition: an integrated inside pocket with collectable inserts, a larger trim size, and two ribbon bookmarks
- Appeals to two major audiences: crime fiction and Agatha Christie enthusiasts, as well as food lovers, cookbook collectors, and gift-book buyers

Egypt, 1937: A glamorous group of travellers gathers aboard a Nile steamer. What begins as a honeymoon soon turns into a murder investigation—one that only Hercule Poirot can solve. Agatha Christie's Death on the Nile is one of the world's most celebrated crime novels.

This beautifully produced edition combines the unabridged original text with 30 specially developed and photographed recipes inspired by the world of the novel: the cuisine served on board, the flavours of Egypt, and the cocktails of the 1930s. A change of paper stock elegantly separates the novel from the recipe section, while an integrated pocket contains a selection of exclusive keepsakes.

Agatha Christie (1890–1976) is one of the world's most widely read authors, and Death on the Nile, first published in 1937, is among her best-known works. The culinary concept will be developed by Urs Hug, whose work as a chef and food stylist combines experience, creativity, and a keen eye for creating immersive recipe worlds. Photography is by JUNI, the photographer duo Julia Schmidt and Nikolas Hagele, whose work spans food, still life, interiors, and portraiture. Together, they will create a distinctive visual and culinary world that reinterprets the cuisine of the 1930s, the Egyptian-European atmosphere of Nile travel, and the elegance of the novel for a contemporary audience.
