- This is the second collection from The Braziller Series of Australian Poets, an ongoing project aimed at introducing the best of Australian poetry
- Poems in The Deep North are taken from Lea's three previous collections as well as new poems never before published

The Braziller Series of Australia Poets continues with the acclaimed poet Bronwyn Lea, deemed “the brightest light to emerge in Australian poetry” in many years (Geoffrey Lehmann, Weekend Australian). Lea’s work is a brilliant mapping of the overlapping regions of our sensual, psychic and emotional worlds, presented with a linguistic and intellectual bravura that makes this a captivating collection.

Bronwyn Lea has won the South Australian Premier Literary Award and the Western Australian Premier's Book Award. Her work has been translated into multiple languages and she is the founding editor of The Best Australian Poetry series. She lives in Brisbane, Australia.
