TITLE INFORMATION
Tel: +44 (0) 1394 389950
Email: uksales@accartbooks.com
Web: https://www.accartbooks.com/uk

Desert Escapes

Karen Gardiner

ISBN	9789401488709
Publisher	Lannoo Publishers
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World excluding Belgium, The Netherlands, France, Switzerland & Scandinavia
Size	270 mm x 205 mm
Pages	256 Pages
Illustrations	200 color
Price	£45.00

- The world's most exceptional refuges accompanied by stunning photography
- A source of inspiration for your ideal trip to discover the peace and space of the desert
- Written by Karen Gardiner, an expert journalist on places, art and cultural heritage
- Includes more than 40 hotels that offer luxury and a once-in-a lifetime experience

"A collection of glamorous lodgings offering what Scarabeo Camp in Morocco calls "dusty luxury." —Remodelista

"Celebrates the solitude of the desert and extraordinary places to stay." —Wallpaper

The desert offers the great benefits of silence, slowness and space. These startling landscapes and awe-inspiring vistas can only be found in a few places in the world. Accompanied by stunning photography, this book bundles together 40 dreamy locations in one volume and shows the most luxurious and special overnight stays the desert has to offer. Get insider tips on travel to the Sahara in Morocco, the salt flats (Salar de Uyuni) in Bolivia or the Gobi Desert in Mongolia, among others.

Karen Gardiner is a Scottish writer currently based in the US. She writes about art, special places and islands and cultural heritage. She writes for Condé Nast Traveler, BBC Travel, National Geographic Travel, The Guardian, Architectural Digest, and more.

Published 21st Mar 2023