Founded in 1968, the Interieur Foundation is a non-profit organisation, acting in the field of design, product development and innovation. One of the foundation's aims has been to put contemporary design displays for the home and interior innovations on display for a broad general public – not only for professionals, as was the case with most fairs. Unlike many other furniture shows, which offer a mix of old, new, kitsch and design, the Biennale Interieur promotes the latest contemporary forms and creativity in interior design. Design Biennale Interieur 2010 reflects the role of Interieur 2010 as a meeting place for designers and producers and as a leading design event for professionals and design fans. The book bares the soul of the event: its reputation, renewing character, quality and selection of more than 250 interior design brands, together with 'the making of' and the theme of 'the new world' – all illustrated across more than 500 pages. The book contains essays on architects Junya Ishigami (Japan), Andrea Branzi (Italy), texts and photos on the designer of the year, international young designers, design at work, design in France, Great Britain, the Netherlands, Germany, as well as practical information on top design brands. Text in English, Dutch, French and German.
