Since Christian Dior unveiled his revolutionary New Look in 1947, the House of Dior has stood at the forefront of fashion, defining elegance, femininity, and exceptional craftsmanship for generations. From the visionary founder to the celebrated creative directors who followed, Dior continues to shape the world of luxury with creativity, innovation, and timeless style.

Dior Édition is a beautifully designed visual journey through one of the world's most influential fashion maisons. Richly illustrated with spectacular photography, iconic designs, archival moments, and exquisite details, the book explores the history, haute couture, ready-to-wear, accessories, fragrances, jewellery, watches, and artistic legacy that have made Dior a global symbol of sophistication. Created for fashion lovers, collectors, and admirers of exceptional design, this elegant volume is both an inspiring source of knowledge and a striking object in its own right. Whether displayed on a coffee table or enjoyed page by page, Dior Édition celebrates the timeless beauty and creative spirit of a house that continues to inspire the world.
