

Elements

In Pursuit of the Wild

Rucksack Magazine

ISBN	9789401471275
Publisher	Lannoo Publishers
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World excluding Belgium, The Netherlands, France, Switzerland & Scandinavia
Size	275 mm x 210 mm
Pages	240 Pages
Illustrations	50 color, 200 b&w
Price	£40.00

- The first book from internationally acclaimed Rucksack Magazine, whose bi-annual themed journals feature stories, photographs, and interviews on wilderness, travel, adventure, and escapism
- Presents predominantly new material which has not been published in the journals or online

“I have to say that Rucksack Magazine immediately earned a spot as one of my all time favourite travel related magazines out there.”
– runhumans.com

Elements, In Pursuit of the Wild, is a powerful and moving visual journey of discovery created by the editors of Rucksack Magazine. In this compilation are stories, interviews, and stunning photographs that highlight locations where we are overwhelmed by the beauty of nature. These wild places embody peace and tranquillity, and exploring them requires courage, a sense of adventure, and an intrepid curiosity about the world. Locations featured in this book include the Faroe Islands, the northwest Pacific, Scandinavia, and Scotland, among other places. The majority of the material in this book is previously unpublished, online or in print.

Rucksack Magazine is an internationally acclaimed magazine that presents strong visual and written stories driven by a passion for discovery, adventure and photography.