Equestrian – The Ultimate Book offers an exclusive glimpse into the world of equestrian sport as a refined expression of a luxurious lifestyle. This beautifully illustrated volume features in-depth portraits of renowned horse racing events such as Royal Ascot and the Dubai World Cup, alongside striking equestrian arenas steeped in cultural significance. It explores the captivating allure of galloping, show jumping, and polo, while highlighting prominent figures in the sport. Enriched with lifestyle features on handcrafted saddles and opulent hotels associated with major equestrian events, this book is a perfect book for discerning equestrian enthusiasts and admirers of exquisite elegance.

Text in English and German.

Alena Brandt from Göttingen, Germany, has been researching and writing about horses for over a decade. Her passion for horses is reflected in her daily life with her Hanoverian mare, where trust and presence matter more than perfection. She trained as a journalist from 2011 to 2013 at Motor Presse Stuttgart and has since worked as a freelance author for print and online media, including the renowned equestrian magazine CAVALLO and the TV knowledge program Galileo. Awarded by the German Equestrian Federation for her article on animal behaviour, she combines fascination with science in her work.
