Equestrian – The Ultimate Book offers an exclusive insight into equestrian sports as a sophisticated expression of luxury. Opulently illustrated, it showcases iconic events such as Royal Ascot and the Dubai World Cup, highlights dressage, show jumping, and polo, and introduces leading personalities. Lifestyle articles on handmade saddles, luxury hotels, and special riding venues round off this elegant volume for discerning enthusiasts and lovers of exquisite style.

Text in English and German.

Alena Brandt from Göttingen, Germany, has been researching and writing about horses for over a decade. Her passion for horses is reflected in her daily life with her Hanoverian mare, where trust and presence matter more than perfection. She trained as a journalist from 2011 to 2013 at Motor Presse Stuttgart and has since worked as a freelance author for print and online media, including the renowned equestrian magazine CAVALLO and the TV knowledge program Galileo. Awarded by the German Equestrian Federation for her article on animal behaviour, she combines fascination with science in her work.
