Life Beat Soft Melt presents a new series of works by Erwin Wurm, introducing here, alongside his iconic One Minute Sculptures, a wall painting installation, which extends his sculptural concept.

A cheerful colourism, language, emotions, time and space, sculpture and happenings merge here into an elemental experience. Known for transforming the traditional medium of sculpture into something more fluid, participatory, and playfully subversive, Wurm expands his sculptural language beyond objects to include space, painting, and drawing. His art concept invites viewers not only to observe the works but also to become part of them.

Text in English and German.
