- Presents the young Zurich architects Caroline Fiechter and René Salzmann who have already enjoyed a number of competition successes, including a school building with a wonderful appearance in Ballwil LU

The young Zurich architects Caroline Fiechter and René Salzmann have already enjoyed a number of competition successes, including a school building with a wonderful appearance in Ballwil LU, which was achieved using red-washed timber. Its expression skilfully shifts between appropriate nobility and a warm radiance that is compatible with the world of children. Text in German.
