- Part of the Tiny Folio series, this diminutive survey features all aspects of Wright's art, including New York's Guggenheim Museum
- Complete with drawings and rarely seen works from Wright's own Asian art collection

This diminutive survey features all aspects of Wright's art, from lowslung Prairie houses to the dramatic, seminal Fallingwater, to larger projects such as his two homes, Taliesin and Taliesin West, culminating in that icon of modernism, New York's Guggenheim Museum. This satisfying volume is complete with drawings and rarely seen works from Wright's own Asian art collection.
