- Celebrating the life of Frida Kahlo 70 years after her passing, getting to know that life, that woman, that artist, that ICON!
- Famous for her paintings as well as her unique personality and multifaceted life
- The perfect coffee table book, but so much more!

Frida the woman. Frida the artist. Frida the icon. Fragile and indomitable, she made herself a work of art, celebrating the beauty of imperfection. Hers was an existence made of passion, revolution, brightly coloured clothes, and paintings that mirrored her dances with death and love for life. A life like hers requires splendid images and intense text chronicling its many adventures. From her childhood to the accident, from her discovery of painting and the ties with extraordinary characters such as André Breton, Tina Modotti, Lev Trotsky, to her legendary marriage to Diego Rivera and her enchantment with the Casa Azul. This stunning book is a homage to the human being who became a symbol of emancipation and freedom. A hymn to diversity and joie de vivre, dedicated to all women of the world.

Chiara Pasqualetti Johnson writes about travel, art, and lifestyle for major Italian magazines. Johnson is also the author of several successful female biographies with White Star, including Portraits of Great Women (2018), which was translated into fourteen languages, and, Coco Chanel: The Style Revolution (2020), a best-seller with seven international editions, and many more.
