- Designed to help babies start to recognise colours and shapes
- Charming black, white, and red illustrations by Agnese Baruzzi

A series of board books intended to develop the visual skills of newborn babies. The shapes in these books are easy to recognise, thanks to the high contrast of the images in black, white, and red, the first three colours babies can perceive.From Day to Night presents contrasting situations seen in the light with those taking place after dark. They are intended to help little ones perceive the passing of time and attune to the liveliness of daytime and the silence and sleep of night. Ages: 0 to 12 months

Agnese Baruzzi graduated with a degree in graphic design. She has worked as an illustrator and author since 2001. Her books have been published in several countries around the world.
