- A monograph dedicated to the work of Lausanne-based architectural duo Olivier Galletti and Claude Matter
- Captures the diversity for which Galletti Matter's projects are known

The architectural duo Olivier Galletti and Claude Matter, based in Lausanne, have already produced an impressive oeuvre. Their buildings react to their given locations in a sensitive way, and complement the premises of their use. Thanks to this, over the past 25 years Galletti Matter have developed a reputation for buildings that are diverse in terms of form, figure, construction and materials, and which always maintain balance between utilisation and architectural ideals.

Text in German and French.
