- A voluptuous tour through the stunning interiors curated by Belgian decorator Geoffroy Van Hulle

"Van Hulle is not an interior designer but an interior artist. He understands the art of transforming the soul of the occupants into the soul of a house." – Elle Deco

Grand Interiors is an immersive 'grand tour' of Geoffroy Van Hulle's grandiose interiors. The Belgian decorator gives us a look inside exuberant private homes, from Knokke to New York. In his unpretentious interiors, he sprinkles generously with colours, patterns and exoticism. 'Nowhere in my interiors is the distance to a bookcase, fireplace or bar cabinet more than five steps' he says. With the bravura of his teachers Cecil Beaton and David Hicks, he designs dazzling sets for everyday theatre.

Please welcome on stage, mister Geoffroy Van Hulle and his Grand Interiors!

Geoffroy Van Hulle is an interior decorator. Interiors of his hand can be found from Paris, Amsterdam to New York. His style is maximalist and cosmopolitan. He does everything on intuition. A sense of beauty. A sense of harmony. A sense of grandeur. As he himself puts it: 'Pure simplicity is a very complicated matter.'
