- The first book in a decade to examine the distinctive creations of Hunt Slonem
- Scholarly yet accessible texts by leading critics
- Includes photography of his historic mansions and their unique interior furnishings, his multi-media sculpture, and other seminal works

Best known for his lavish and whimsical paintings of bunnies, butterflies and birds, Hunt Slonem is a painter, sculptor and interior designer with a distinct neo-expressionist style. This sumptuous new volume is the first in a decade to examine his distinctive creations across genres. Scholarly yet accessible texts by leading critics offer new perspectives, celebrating Slonem's full artistic vision. Combining intimate views of his lovingly restored historic mansions and unique interior furnishings, his multi-media sculpture, iconic paintings and seminal works, this book will be essential for all who love the elegant and exotic worlds of Hunt Slonem.
