From Ischia to Capri, Amalfi and Sicily, Italy's most iconic coastal travel destinations are poetically explored through the lens of fine arts photographer Natalie Obradovich who captures the soul of each location with affection and nuance. Each image is a postcard from the shores of the Italian beach clubs and towns that define summer.

Natalie Obradovich is a New York and Los Angeles-based photographer inspired by interior design, travel, and a love of all things visual. Born and raised in Manhattan Beach, California, Natalie's childhood set the stage for a lifelong love of documenting summers spent by the sea. A graduate of the University of Southern California, Natalie began her career in interior design working for Kelly Wearstler, followed by tenures in New York City at other prestigious firms including Thad Hayes and Neal Beckstedt, before establishing her own business. She began formally exhibiting and selling her work in 2016 and her photographs have been featured in publications and books all over the world.
