- World barbecue Champion Peter de Clercq gives a demonstration of barbecuing as you've never seen before: food of exceptional culinary excellence
- International class design
- Modern and creative photography
- Perfect for the enthusiast, these recipes are sure to impress both accomplished and beginner barbecuers alike

One of the joys of summer has got to be the barbecue, although many people tend to not get further than the traditional sausages and burgers. Peter de Clercq is the chef and owner of the renowned restaurant Elckerlijc, an author of several books on barbecuing and a world barbecue champion and adviser. Just Grilling displays his exceptional creative talent. The finest ingredients are used in a contemporary, modern and often adventurous way. From grilled duck's liver to jumbo shrimps, mussels to grilled toast this book has it all, with over 45 exciting recipes to try at home.
