Authentic street art, captivating landscapes — a coffee table book in a class of its own: Music, photography, philanthropy: Many hearts beat within Julian Lennon. This stunning first photography book is impressive proof that the established singer/songwriter has also earned an esteemed place behind the camera. His pictures are powerful, expressive and show lesser-known facets of his artistry. A natural visionary, Lennon has mastered all subjects: stunning landscapes that rank among the greatest moments of travel photography; urban scenes and street art that echo the essence of the featured locations and intimate portraits that capture the spirit of each individual. In his unique way, he's created a visually stunning documentary-like story within each photograph.

Life in the moment: Julian Lennon's intimate photography with emotional insights: The portrait photography of the artist, who was born in Liverpool in 1963, also bears his very own signature. In this first photography book, Julian Lennon gives us personal insight into his inspiration for the images within the pages. With moving texts written by the artist himself, this extraordinary collection of photos also offers us a glimpse into the world of his thoughts and emotions. Lennon's first photography book is also a personal milestone: creative and inspired, he can focus on what is important to him behind the camera instead of just being the centre of attention as an internationally acclaimed singer/songwriter. The result: an outstanding coffee table book that shows complex, diverse sides of his creative spirit — a must-have for any collector!

Text in English and German.

Julian Lennon began his artistic career at a young age with an innate talent for musical instruments. However, as an observer of life in all its forms, he quickly developed his personal expression through other mediums such as documentary films, philanthropy and fine art photography. He made his debut in the field of fine art photography in 2010 with his first exhibition Timeless at the Morrison Hotel Gallery in New York City. Since then, he has exhibited his work throughout the United States and in several countries worldwide. In 2020, he was the first photographer to be exhibited at the prestigious Aston Martin Residences in Miami.
