- Introducing the first monograph on the artistic work of Linus Riepler
- Text in English and German

After the Excitement is the first monograph on the artistic work of Linus Riepler (* 1984). The main focus is on his large, expansive installations and sculptures from the last ten years. In particular, it is worked out how the use of space, the interaction with the viewer and the representation of scenic narratives run through Riepler's entire oeuvre.

With texts and essays by art historian and curator Daniela Hahn as well as companions from previous exhibition projects.

Text in English and German.
