Meet Martin Luther King, Jr. and discover the story of his life and work in this engagingly illustrated biography – narrated by King himself. A series of illustrated books specifically designed for children in elementary education, narrating the stories of great historical figures who have left their mark on humanity. The little readers will be inspired by Martin Luther King, and the way he made history with his powerful speeches and peaceful protests. The book will help children to explore how Martin went from being a kid with a dream to an outstanding leader who made America a better place for everyone. At the end of each volume, the reader will find a timeline listing the main biographical events and some simple quizzes to further understand and test their knowledge. Ages: 6 plus

Angie Alape Perez was born and raised in Bogota, Colombia, where she has been working as a freelance illustrator. She has illustrated picture books, textbooks for schools, social campaigns, character design for 3D animation, and web magazines.
