- With this original and amazing record album parents can re-live, after years, the greatest emotion of their life

The arrival of a new little member of the family leads to revolutionary changes which will involve every aspect of the new parents' life. In fact, from that moment on, every small step by their little boy or girl will be accompanied by an incredible emotion, to preserve forever. This record album will enable them to collect and keep all the information, memories, and feelings linked to the early years of the new family, with a special attention to the connection between the baby and his/her beloved rattle. Graphically, the album is cheerful, pleasant and amusing, with colourful photos of pretty babies and their rattles. Included in the book parents will find a baby rattle, excellent in shape and material for newborns, that is a perfect gift for the new family member. With this original and amazing record album parents can re-live, after years, the greatest emotion of their life.
