Monheim am Rhein, a medium-sized town located between Cologne and Düsseldorf, boasts an impressive collection of public art. Internationally renowned artists have realised projects here ranging from traditional sculpture to light and sound art, and even an artificial geyser. This allows visitors to experience a wide range of what public art can be today. The main works, created between 2018 and 2024, are now presented in a catalogue raisonné. It features works by Tony Cragg, Angela de Wejier, inges idee, Jeppe Hein, Saman Hidayat, Thomas Kesseler, Mischa Kuball, Markus Lüpertz, Thomas Stricker, Timm Ulrichs, and Robert Wilson.
